

Minutes of the Leys Millionaires Steering Group meeting held Tuesday 7th September

Due to the Methodist Hall at Old Arley not being open we went to Jim's house as the Wagon Load of Lime was not able to accommodate us.

Meeting opened at 20.10

Present:

Ellen Charles, Jo Gosling, Gill Hutchinson, Davina Key, Mark Limb, Carolyn Painter (Secretary) Jim Rowe (Support Worker), Trevor Tennant, Virginia Tennant (Chair person) John Underhill.

Apologises for absence:

Paul Reader, Eric Fellows and Pat Hunt

1. Minutes of last meeting

Passed as read proposed by Trevor and seconded by Mark

2. Matters Arising

At present no leaflet for making scarecrows has been drafted but Jim anticipated being able to publish one for the website. No update available regarding "Lengthmens" for Arley but Ansley believed to have one.

3. Event Group Report

Scarecrow making at New Arley 15 adults 25 children took part. Old Arley had 5 children and 12 adults. Very positive feedback from the 2 session ran by Linda and Ruth. The final session is at Ansley on Saturday 11th September.

Scarecrow weekend. Teas, coffee and possible Art Exhibition at Ansley on Sunday Jim and John to co-ordinate. Use Old Barn at Old Arley on Saturday for refreshments. Jim to arrange venues for picking up paper maps.

Feedback sessions. These will be held on 3 days. All meetings will be 7pm to 8.30 pm

Monday 21st September Methodist Hall Old Arley

Tuesday 22nd September Village Hall Ansley

Wednesday 23rd September Arley Community Centre

These sessions have been published in the Arley news and been submitted for publication to Ansley news.

It was also discussed about holding a daytime session at the School Jim and Jo to make enquires
Jacki Douglas (NWBC) would like to attend and no objections were raised.

Board members are encouraged to attend at least one of the sessions.

Trevor is attending his media course on the 29th September

The final draft of the leaflet will be distributed by Jim for comments

A submission to local newspaper to broadcast the various events will be sent by Jim

It was agreed to hold the lantern festival on Sunday 20th December Jim to liaise with the golf club.

4. Big Local Profile

A first draft has been distributed but more information and photos need to be added, also items that will help with future comparison. This is because in 10 years we will need to evaluate the progress and what has been achieved. Sources of information to be referenced in the document. Target finishing the document by early October

5. Communications Group

Jim to prepare the feedback meeting invitation leaflet and scarecrow festival press release.

6. Any other Business Jo brought to our attention the recent tragic suicide of a local youth. Discussions took place on if / how we could in the future provide some form of counselling support. Also discussed the state of “the backs” and how we assist/facilitate them.

7. Feedback Leaflet Gill presented a suggested format and set of questions to be used at the Feedback meetings. All to review the questions and send comments to Jim.

8. Date of next meeting is Monday 5th October 7pm Ansley Village Hall
